

Global Village

Do take time to visit the Global Village where we will have approximately 50 mission agencies exhibiting. This year, we are introducing some new initiatives into the Global Village. They include a Prayer Area, re-opening of the Coffee Hub, OSCAR and a Living Library.

Opening Times:

Mon & Tue: 9pm to 10.15pm.

Wed to Fri: 6.30pm to 7.15pm and 9pm to 10.15pm

OSCAR will be hosting an information hub, with information on opportunities to serve God overseas and at home as well as volunteer opportunities with mission agencies.

Adopt a Child is hosting our Coffee Hub Monday to Friday including two specific international nights, not to be missed.

The Prayer Area will help you source excellent informative prayer material to help you pray specifically for mission around the globe.

Living Library is an opportunity to meet and chat with our speakers/mission agency reps over coffee in 15 minute slots, one-to-one or with a friend.

Geoff McIlrath

Geoff works with Castreagh Fellowship, Belfast, which he helped establish in 1993. He has a passion for evangelism and has written gospel literature which is used throughout the world. He is married to Michelle and together they have five adult sons and a growing number of grandchildren.

John McLernon

John is the Mission Director for Crosslinks - a global mission society with ministries in 35 countries across five continents. Originally from Fortrush, John is now based in Crowborough, East Sussex, with his wife Maggie and two teenage daughters.

David Montgomery

Dr David "Monty" Montgomery is the Regional Director of IFES Europe, overseeing the university ministry in over 40 countries from Greenland to Cyprus. He previously served as an IFES Associate for Fionnring and Bible Teaching.

Suzanne Potter

Suzanne Potter is International Team Leader of Latin Link, with a vision to adapt for the realities of mission in a post-colonial, post-covid world. Based in Guatemala, she loves creativity and open water swimming.

Robin Scott

Robin has worked for Prison Fellowship for over 34 years. He began work in the retail trade before going to Bible College in England. Following graduation he joined the staff of Prison Fellowship, as a Fieldworker and became the Director/ CEO in 1993. This year marks the 40th Anniversary of the work of Prison Fellowship in Northern Ireland.

Our 2022 Speakers

Joanne Briggs

Joanne is the National Director of The Leprosy Mission Northern Ireland. Compelled by the love of the Shepherd, Joanne's heart is for the lost, the poor and the outcast and considers it a privilege to be leading an organisation that gets to demonstrate this every day.

David Eastwood

David has served for 30 years in Taiwan with OMF International. He is currently the OMF Taiwan Field Director overseeing around 70 missionaries whose focus is reaching the working class and marginalised.

Zack Eswine

Dr Zack Eswine is a local pastor and Scholar-in-Residence of the Francis Schaeffer Institute at the Covenant Seminary Missouri, USA. In addition to writing books, Dr Eswine teaches advanced-level courses in pastoral leadership, apologetics, and preaching at various seminars.

David Garrison

For nearly four decades, Dr David Garrison has been a missionary pioneer in understanding church planting movements among unreached peoples. He has a PhD in historical theology from the University of Chicago. His books Church Planting Movements and A Wind in the House of Islam have been translated into more than 20 languages.

Archbishop Ben Kwashi

The Most Rev Dr Benjamin Argak Kwashi is the bishop of the Anglican Diocese of Jos and archbishop of the Ecclesiastical Province of Jos in the Church of Nigeria. He and his wife, Gloria, live in Jos, Plateau State, in northern Nigeria. His pastoral experience is wide and varied; he has worked in rural and urban churches, as well as at a theological college.
